The Ohio County Board of Education is seeking an individual with the capacity to have people willingly follow a shared vision that is focused on student achievement. Applicants need to possess strong interpersonal skills with students, staff, board members and community members. The successful individual needs to model the way by being honest, dependable, and demonstrating a strong work ethic. Candidates must be able to both lead the team and be part of the team by being receptive to feedback and treating everyone as a valued member of the organization.

Ohio County is located in Western Kentucky intersected by the Western Kentucky Parkway and the William H. Natcher Parkway. Midway between Owensboro and Bowling Green. The Ohio County Schools are ideally located within a rural lifestyle setting with access to the amenities of larger cities. Covering around 600 square miles, the Ohio County School district serves approximately 4,000 students at six elementary schools, one middle school, one high school, an Area Technology Center and one Alternative Learning Center.
